Call for Nominations

Editor in Chief, Decision Analysis
Deadline for Nominations: March 31, 2006

The final term of Robert T. Clemen and Don N. Kleinmuntz as editors-in-chief of the INFORMS journal Decision Analysis expires on December 31, 2006. Based on recommendations from the INFORMS Publications Committee, the president of INFORMS has appointed a committee to conduct a full search for a new editor-in-chief. The committee intends to propose a candidate for approval by INFORMS no later than July 7, 2006.

All members of INFORMS are invited to participate in this process. The committee seeks your opinions and comments on (1) the current state of the journal, (2) recommendations for change, if any, and (3) candidates for editor-in-chief.

Qualifications for the editor-in-chief of Decision Analysis will include:

- a demonstrated interest in a broad range of topics in the field
- a demonstrated record of research in the field
- dedication and enthusiasm for Decision Analysis
- significant editorial experience
- vision of the role of scholarly publications in the electronic age
- commitment to workload involved
- ability to effectively and efficiently manage the editorial process

Further information about the journal can be obtained at the Decision Analysis website:
<http://da.pubs.informs.org/>.

Members of the search committee are: Craig W. Kirkwood (chair), Arizona State University; Ralph L. Keeney, Duke University; Gregory S. Parnell, United States Military Academy; and Andres Weintraub, Universidad de Chile (committee liaison to the INFORMS Publications Committee).

Please submit comments, nominations, and applications by March 31, 2006. When submitting an application, please include a resume and a brief statement of the candidate's vision and plans for the journal. The information may be sent (preferably by e-mail) to the chair of the Decision Analysis Editorial Search Committee:
