NOTES ABOUT MEMBERS

H. H. CAUVET, Publications Manager and Acting Executive Director of TIMS, has returned to New York State from Florida where he spent the winter. Mail should now be addressed to him at P. O. Box 273, Pleasantville, New York 10570. He and Mrs. Cauvet toured Japan, Formosa, Hong Kong, and Hawaii during the month of May.

Midwest Research Institute recently announced the appointment of JAMES T. DWYER, JR. of Houston, Texas, to head its operations analysis section as part of an expansion in the rapidly growing management sciences field. Dwyer, a former consultant and professor, will take over the management duties that SHELDON L. LEVY, director of the mathematics and physics division, has been performing in a dual capacity. Dwyer comes to MRI from Ernst & Ernst, where he was a senior consultant for about two years. He was responsible for the firm's operations research work in the southwestern part of the United States.

THOMAS A. GOLDMAN is now employed with the TechRep Division of the Philco Corporation. He has been named as Supervisor of the Logistics Analysis Group in the TechRep Division's Operations Research Department. Goldman was formerly with the Center for Naval Analyses.

IRWIN GREENBERG will join the Mathematics Department of the Technische Hogeschool, Delft, Netherlands, for the academic year commencing September 1, 1966. He will be on a leave of absence from the Department of Industrial Engineering and Operations Research, New York University.

Commander WALTER E. MULLER has retired from the U.S. Navy where he was Analysis Officer on the Staff of the ASW Forces, Atlantic Fleet and has joined LTV Electrosystems Inc., P. O. Box 6118, Dallas, Texas as Manager of Systems Technology."

ELIEZER NADDOR is the author of a book recently published by John Wiley and Sons entitled "Inventory Systems." Naddor is a Vice President of TIMS. He is Professor of Operations Research, The Johns Hopkins University.

WALTER G. O'DONNELL, Professor of Management in the School of Business Administration of the University of Massachusetts, who has been active in the founding and development of the College of Management Philosophy of TIMS, will serve as Visiting Professor of Business Administration at the University of New Mexico for the academic year 1966-67.

LOUISE SCHULTZ has been appointed systems development director in the Research and Development Division of BIOSIS (BioSciences Information Service of Biological Abstracts). Miss Schultz joins the newly established Research Division with responsibility for the development of new services to meet the rapidly changing information needs of bioscientists. She comes to BIOSIS from Systems Development Corporation (SDC), Santa Monica, California, where she served as operations research scientist from 1959-66.

Members of TIMS and management scientists everywhere were saddened at the news of the death of the highly esteemed GLEN DARWIN CAMP. At the time of his death, he was a member of the faculty, Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, University of Pennsylvania. A Glen Darwin Camp Memorial Fund has been established at the University. Those interested in making a contribution may make their checks payable to the University of Pennsylvania for the Glen Darwin Camp Memorial Fund. They may be mailed to the Management Science Center, Room W-159, Dietrich Hall, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia 19104.

Notice to Members in Great Britain

Confirmation has now been received from the Principal Inspector of Taxes, Inland Revenue, that full exemption will be granted TIMS members of their dues payments. The Inland Revenue office has asked that the following information be passed on to members.

Commencing with the year to 5 April 1966, a member who is assessable to income tax under Schedule E in respect of the emoluments of an office or employment is entitled to a deduction from those emoluments of the whole of the annual subscription which is due and payable by him to the society in the income tax year provided that—

- a. the subscription is defrayed out of the emoluments of the office or employment, and,
- b. the activities of the society so far as they are directed to all or any of the following objects—
  - (i) the advancement or spreading of knowledge
  - (ii) the maintenance or improvement of standards of conduct and competence among the members of any profession;
  - (iii) the indemnification or protection of members of any profession against claims in respect of liabilities incurred by them in the exercise of their profession;

are relevant to the office or employment.

Members of TIMS in Great Britain who are entitled to the relief should apply to their tax office for form P358 on which to make a claim for relief.
