College on Research and Development (COLRAD)

COLRAD is planning for the Mexico City meetings in August a session on "Research Management: Studies and Methods". In conjunction with the Chairman of COLRAD, Burton V. Dean of Case Institute has arranged a session of seven brief presentations based on papers. The intent is to have a discussion of these by all COLRAD members and guests present. COLRAD in particular wishes to invite all members of TIMS attending the Mexico City sessions who are interested in research and development and its management to participate. A detailed program will be available along with the full Mexico City agenda.

COLRAD elections will be held in the near future for the three positions of chairman, secretary-treasurer and member at large.
