Symposium on Planning

The College on Planning will hold a national symposium in New York City on June 8 and 9, 1967. General Chairman for the symposium is Ralph Baxter, newly elected Chairman of the College on Planning.

The symposium will feature some formal presentations, but will consist mainly of seminars and small group workshops. The symposium will afford an opportunity for the many planners in all industries, educational institutions, and governmental agencies to meet and exchange information.

More complete information about the symposium will appear in the April issue of Management Science, Series C, and in an announcement to be mailed to members of TIMS in February. Meanwhile, additional information can be obtained from Ralph Baxter, 1263 North Citrus, La Habra, California 90631.
