MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

Persons interested in joining the Operations Research Society of America will initially be admitted as Associate Members. Twice yearly at joint national meetings, the ORSA Council, upon recommendation from the Membership Committee, elects to Full Member status those individuals who have requested such a designation and who have met certain professional requirements of the Society.

Dues. The annual dues for Full Members and Associate Members are $65.00 (1994). For members who are pursuing at least a half-time program of instruction at a recognized institute of higher learning, who are enlisted personnel (noncommissioned officers) in the U.S. Armed Forces, or who are retired members, the dues are $32.50—one-half the rate for Full and Associate members. If a person joins ORSA after July 1, the dues are 50% of these amounts. Society dues include subscriptions to Operations Research and OR/MS Today (each published six times per year), two ORSA/TIMS meeting Bulletins, and the joint ORSA/TIMS Directory.

Applications. Information on membership and activities may be requested from the Society's Business Office, at the address listed below.
