Appreciation to Referees, 2012

Robin Qiu, the Editor-in-Chief of Service Science, would like to thank the referees who generously provide expert counsel and guidance on a voluntary basis. Without them, the journal could not function. We have sought diligently to thank all referees, including those who served the journal before it was a part of the online peer review system, ScholarOne Manuscripts. Therefore, the following list acknowledges those individuals who acted as referees for papers considered in 2012.
