

DECISION ANALYSIS

Vicki M. Bier, Editor-in-Chief | University of Wisconsin - Madison

Decision Analysis is a peer-reviewed international journal dedicated to advancing the theory, application, and teaching of all aspects of decision analysis. The primary focus of the journal is to develop and study operational decision-making methods, drawing on all aspects of decision theory, decision analysis, and behavioral decision theory with the ultimate objective of providing practical guidance for decision makers. The journal bridges the gap between theory and practice thereby facilitating active communication and exchange of knowledge among decision analysts in academia, business, industry, and government.

The audience for Decision Analysis includes a broad community of those interested in the practical aspects of decision theory and decision analysis which include specialists, practitioners, consultants, and in-house experts within organizations, as well as instructors of decision analysis or decision making courses.

Frequency: 4 issues/year (quarterly) | ISSN: 1545-8490 (Print) | eISSN: 1545-8504 (Online) | First Issue: 2004
